Aesop’s Fables

Nine linocuts by Edward Bawden depicting Aesop’s fables are displayed in the Gallery until 30 September.

In 1956 Bawden produced An Old Crab and a Young (right) for a book on type and illustration. In 1970 he made a series of prints based on the fables.

The exhibition has been organised by the Fine Arts Committee. The prints are on loan from Fry Art Gallery, Saffron Walden.

An Old Crab and a Young (1956) Colour Linocut